Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Clinton Gregory was born to Clinton Jay Gregory and May (Turner) Gregory in Hot Springs, South Dakota, on April 20, 1926; and,

Whereas, Clint graduated from Hot Springs High School, served 2 years in the Army Air Corps during World War II, and graduated from the University of Wyoming with a degree in Civil Engineering; and,

Whereas, Clint married his high school sweetheart, Millie Schweizer in 1945, and to this union three children were born, Steven, Melinda, and Shelley; and,

Whereas, Clint's engineering profession took him to several different jobs in South Dakota. He retired in 1988, moved back to Hot Springs and started a consulting practice specializing in land surveying and forensic engineering, until retiring in 2011; and,

Whereas, Clint will observe his 85th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 20, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join his friends and relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
